ROLE/ACTIVITY SELECTION

Please Check the Camp/Mentor Event Staff Role You are Interested in Filling

___Counselor: The majority of our staff positions are for Lead Youth/Adult Counselors & Support Youth/Adult Counselors. These positions are for those who want to be on the front lines of ministry. Your volunteer days will be spent with a tribe of campers from drop-off through pick-up. You will be responsible for developing a community atmosphere within your tribe which will include laughing, singing, sweating, sharing the word & having fun with your campers as they learn about Christ. You will be trained for & expected to be at the top of your game during every moment you spend on campus. You will share responsibility with other staff for teaching & caring for your assigned campers & will be supervised by an adult leader who will provide feedback regarding your job performance on a daily basis. You will be held to a high standard of accountability as the children in your care deserve the utmost love, respect, & attention we can provide. Your life outside of Seeds of Hope matters as well. Your character & integrity will be scrutinized by the children you interact with & ultimately is a reflection on Heroes Helping Heroes & the Seeds of Hope programs. Our leadership team takes this very seriously as we strive to be representatives of the love & character of our Savior, Jesus Christ. These positions are preferably required to be filled by full time staff members.

Camper Age Range Preference: 1st Choice _____, 2nd Choice _____, 3rd Choice _____

___First Aid Specialist: This position is focused on the health & safety of our campers. This position is solely devoted to providing care for campers & staff as minor emergencies occur within the camp environment. This position is also responsible for dispensing medication to campers, maintaining all health forms during each camp session, keeping an inventory of all supplies in our first aid station, & maintaining a log of all medication or aid that is administered during the week. We desire for this position to be filled by someone who is experienced in or actively pursuing a degree or career in the nursing or medical field. This position is preferably required to be filled by full time staff members.

___Kitchen Specialist: The kitchen specialist is a summer camp position responsible for communicating daily attendance numbers to the parties tasked with meal/snack preparation such as the on-site county level school cafeteria manager (who provides the campers' breakfast & lunch) & the Kitchen Chaos track leaders (who prepare the daily afternoon snack). The kitchen specialist is also tasked with coordination of preparation & clean-up of Gatorade coolers that go out daily to outdoor activity tracks, coordination & preparation of beverages for the adult & youth staff meals/snacks, & the coordination/preparation of the breakfast & lunch menu items for the adult & youth meals/snacks. The kitchen specialist is also tasked with the coordination of clean-up of the cafeteria space. The Kitchen Specialist position is preferably required to be filled by full time staff members.

___Kitchen Support Staff: There should be a team of at least five support people working under the kitchen specialist. These support positions are not required to be filled by full time staff members. Breakfast, lunch, & afternoon snack times will be supported by these staff members based upon the direction of the Kitchen Specialist.

___Video/Photography Specialist: This position focuses on shooting moving & still photography. This person is responsible for shooting & creating weekly videos as well as shooting still photographs for summer camp & the mentor programs. This person will be responsible for providing these completed files to the media specialist for execution during the appropriate daily assemblies & the camp wrap up celebration. In addition, this person will be responsible for creating promotional videos or other materials that may be used for educational, marketing, recruitment, or training purposes. Due to the privacy & security concerns associated with our campers in foster care, the video specialist will be charged with having a working knowledge of each child's background. If a child is not in foster care & is therefore eligible to be included in moving & still photography for use in educational, marketing, recruitment, or training materials, the video specialist is responsible for obtaining usage consents from the appropriate parent/guardian before including that child's likeness in said materials. This position is required to be filled by full time staff members.

___Photography Support: This position captures video & still photography of campers, staff, & camp activities both on & off campus & provides all images to the Video/Photography Specialist.

Camp Ministry Team: The camp ministry team will be comprised of individuals who are collectively responsible for establishing the scripture focus & lesson plans for each week of camp pending approval from the Executive Director, the Youth Director & the Operations Director. The team will also be responsible for leading large group devotions/sermons. The ministry team will be tasked with leading these times during the morning Pow-Wow, children's church, & afternoon chapel times. They must be gifted in leading a variety of age groups & prepare age appropriate lessons with visual & auditory aids. The ministry team must work with the skit team & the worship team to provide an outline upon which they will base their delivery of the daily message. This outline must also be shared with the Lead Counselors in each tribe, the HERO leadership team, & the track leaders. A basic outline will be due to the Directors previously named by May 1st with updates provided as changes occur each week prior to camp. The ministry team will be responsible for setting the atmosphere of worship & will be tasked with counseling staff & campers who are in need of spiritual nurturing. This position is required to be filled by full time staff members.

Worship Leader: The worship leader is someone who is gifted in leading children & young teens in worship. It includes leading worship during afternoon chapel times, children's church, & at morning Pow-Wow--one of the wildest times at camp. The worship leader will be responsible for meeting with the camp minister to determine what songs & formats best coincide with the daily lesson plan. The worship leader will also be responsible for communicating lyrics & technical needs to the media & sound specialists. The worship leader will be responsible for the establishment & coordination of the supporting worship team, their practice schedule, & their coordination with other inter-related staff.

Worship Team: The worship team is to be established no later than May 1st. Practice during camp will only be allowed during specifically designated times or before/after campers are on campus. This position is required to be filled by full time staff members. A detailed job description will be provided based on your indication of interest.

Media Specialist: The media specialist will work with the worship team, the skit team, the sound team, the photography/video specialist, & the ministry team to promote & execute any technological function needed during the course of camp. This position is required to be filled by full time staff members.

Sound Specialist: The sound specialist will work with the worship team, the skit team, the media specialist, the photography/video specialist, & the ministry team to promote & execute any audio function needed during the course of camp. Preferably, this position is to be filled by full time staff members.

Organized Mass Chaos (OMC) Course Specialist: This position will be responsible for set-up/tear down of all course elements, leading campers through various challenge course activities, & helping provide routine maintenance. Each week there will be additional staff assigned to assist the Challenge Course Specialist. You will also be responsible for maintaining the inventory of supplies & being sure to identify when more supplies need to be purchased. You will also work closely with the program director in coordinating OMC course usage to ensure safety & efficiency. This position is not required to be filled by full time staff members.

Organized Mass Chaos (OMC) Support Team: These positions will report directly to the OMC course specialist & follow his/her direction for set-up/tear down of all course elements, leading campers through the various challenge course activities, & helping provide routine maintenance.

Camp Skit Team: The camp skit team will be responsible for meeting with the worship team & the ministry team to determine the focus of the drama that will be acted out during the Pow-Wow, Children's Church (the use of puppets are highly encouraged), & the afternoon chapel time. The skit team will also work with the sound team, the media specialist, & the photography/video specialist to address the technological needs to be addressed during the performance of the skits. The skit team will be established no later than May 1st. Skits must be decided upon & rehearsed two weeks prior to camp. Practice during camp will only be allowed during HERO or before/after campers are on campus. HERO leaders cannot be on the skit team. These positions are required to be filled by full time staff members.

Daily Clean-Up Team: The daily clean-up team will be responsible for patrolling the outer & inner campus after the conclusion of the afternoon snack, returning the areas in use by the camp team to the proper condition. Trash will be collected & disposed of & bathrooms will be cleaned. After the conclusion of worship, the worship center will be cleaned & all trash removed from the area. Finally, once campers have left campus, the gymnasium & classroom spaces will be swept & cleaned as needed.

___End of Week Clean-Up Management Team: Every person will participate in the End of Week Clean-up, however, there will be a management team assigned to designate areas of responsibility. The goal is to completely clean the campus of any trace of the Seeds of Hope camp. We WILL leave the campus cleaner than we found it. The end of the week clean-up management team will be responsible for managing the THURSDAY-PRE-BREAK DOWN: all track leaders should neatly pack down their track immediately following their last track on Thursday. All items made by staff & campers during track or HERO sessions should be sent home Thursday if at all possible. All food & paper goods, with the exception of that needed for Friday lunch/dinner should be packed & moved to the appropriate designated location or sent home with campers (if the items will expire prior to the next camp/mentor session). In addition, the end of week clean-up management team will manage FRIDAY-CLEAN UP (final clean-up will not start until every camper is out of the building). Areas that must be returned to their original condition (pictures of each space will be provided for reference) as well as a spotless condition will be: the girls' bathrooms, boys' bathrooms, library, all classrooms utilized, all storage rooms utilized, all gymnasiums utilized, the cafeteria, the football field, softball/baseball fields, soccer fields, hallways, & buses/vans used. In addition, the end of week clean-up team will load up & deliver all to the appropriate designated location.

___Administrative Support Team: The administrative support team will take pictures of each space utilized prior to set up for camp to be used for reference during the Friday clean-up & break down. The admin support team will be responsible for analyzing the layout of the campus space provided & assigning the usage of the space as best suitable for camp activities. A schematic of the space will be provided for reference purposes. The admin support team will be responsible for registration, check-in, & check-out of campers. Registration duties include reviewing camper applications to determine/assess their eligibility (age, medical/behavioral/educational issues, foster/adopted/at-risk), guardianship/custody arrangements, legal authorizations, track assignments, interests, & their team assignment. All medical/behavioral/educational issues regarding individual campers noted by the support team will be shared with the appropriate camp staff such as the camp nurse, track/HERO leaders, off campus team leaders, & meal prep team. Check-in of campers will typically occur each morning between 7:15am & 9:30am, however, campers may drop in at any point during the day due to late arrivals or appointments. Check-out of campers typically occurs between 4:30pm & 5:45pm each day, however it can also be impacted due to camper scheduling conflicts. Check-in & check-out will be done by a kiosk scanning system in which we will assist the parents. The admin support team will be responsible for providing camper & staff numbers to the cafeteria crew in charge of ALL meal times.

___LOVE Leader: The leader will be responsible for teaching one hour of interactive games/crafts/object lessons that address one letter per day of the acronym. Lesson plans & materials will be provided & the leader is welcome to subtract & supplement based on the age group being taught & the appropriateness of materials provided. Visual aids & music are highly encouraged. The team is highly encouraged to meet & strategize before, during & after camp sessions.

___LOVE Support: The support will be responsible for assisting the leader for one hour of interactive games/crafts/object lessons that address one letter per day of the acronym. Lesson plans & materials will be provided. The team is highly encouraged to meet & strategize before, during & after camp sessions.

___Off Campus Support Team: The off campus support team may be called to one of two areas; on-site at the Worthington's farm or traveling to daily off campus activities with our oldest group of campers. Volunteers for both areas will need to be energetic, outdoors oriented people who are inclined to think quickly & act according to the environment they are placed in. A wide variety of activities will occur each day & volunteers must be actively engaged to ensure the safety & enjoyment of each camper. For example, volunteers may be asked to engage in: hiking, creek walking, swimming, arts & crafts, nerf activities, frisbee golf, horse shoes, bouncy house, birthday party games, equine experience, petting zoo (Domestic Animals), farming demonstrations (planting & picking), team building exercises/games, transportation between private properties, college campus tours, scavenger hunts, or an outing to a baseball game. Farm volunteers are needed between 9am-3pm Monday-Thursday & volunteers departing with older campers are needed 9am-3pm daily. Volunteers may work multiple hours & days if available.

Activity Tracks (listed below): Please mark all areas of interest with an "L" for leader or an "A" for assistant. Positions are not guaranteed but we will do our best to put you in the tracks you choose.
